About us

Introduction

Arsian.in is owned & Operated by Arsian Organic Private Limited

At the heart of arsian.in is our commitment to be a living embodiment of love and consciousness in action. We work with thousands of small family farmers in India to cultivate tens of thousands of acres of sustainable organic farmland. All arsian.in products support health and True Wellness and are made with loving care. Each product is one link in a chain of connectedness between Mother Nature, our farmers and you. By choosing arsian.in you are completing this chain, actively participating in our mission to create a sustainable environment of True Wellness, providing training and a life of dignity to our farmers, and bringing health, happiness and True Wellness to you. All of our farmers and tribal wild crafters are educated in organic and biodynamic agricultural practices. We pay all the fees associated with acquiring the necessary organic certifications for them, and then we purchase the harvested crops and herbs at a premium market price. The farmers also rotate between growing crops on their land for arsian.in with food crops for themselves. This means farming families are supported by a sustainable income, while at the same time improving and preserving their own health and natural environment. arsian.in is committed to being a trustworthy and innovative global leader by providing genuine True Wellness products. Our advanced processing methods and dehydration technologies ensure that our herbs retain their maximum level of potency for the highest quality, most effective, pure and natural True Wellness products available in the market today. Our success serves as living proof that shared abundance can be created with an uncompromising commitment to environmental and social responsibility. In living this vision, we are inspired to introduce a new standard for new paradigm companies: arsian.in is proud to announce its partnership with "Sefcotek.com" India's private mineral product plant for base cleaning oil from the sea it also clean impurities in Still-based products and a produce a natural mineral raw material of cosmetic industries. Sefco sources from rural artisans across the country to bring a range of Cosmetic products to customers around the world. Besides a distinctive range of mineral and other products for your home, industries, and retail. Arsian.in offers you choices for a completely organic lifestyle with its range of organic and natural foods. Arsian.in is the most trusted online marketplace for natural and eco-friendly organic, Natural, Herbal, Ayurvedic, products in India. We have five years of experience in providing a wide range of the most popular organic products in the market. We constantly extend our products range to provide healthier options to our customers to choose from. We work only with trusted organic product manufacturers and suppliers to ensure consumer get the best value for their money. Product sold on our site is a safe and most effective organic range to cater to a variety of needs from beauty products to food & grocery range. We take pride in delivering a premium range of Natural and eco-friendly organic products to your doorstep at the right time, right quality and best price. Our team of qualified and highly experienced professionals is well conversant with the current food laws and packaging regulations prevailing in India. This helps us to comply with the international standards and deliver the best to the customers. We run special deals for bulk buyers and at the same time, we are very supportive, eager and burning desire for the development of new and upcoming businesses as well.

What we do

We bring Buyers and sellers of Natural, Organic, and environmentally safe products under one roof, to facilitate and ensure that the right product reaches the health and environmentally conscious consumer. We provide consumers a lot of choices to choose from based on their preferences. We zero in on the best suppliers and makers of natural and organic products, the brands of which may not be available in retail chain/stores. We respect your concern about the quality and safety of the products. We are leaving no stones unturned to ensure that the best brands in the natural and eco-friendly organic products come under one umbrella to make sure that customers' preferences are given the highest priority. In addition to more famous & established brands, we also promote authentic products in the segment which small scale/micro level entrepreneurs. We ensure that customers get a truly customized service

Why we do it

We strive to make it easy for customers to find the best stuff at a single platform. We ensure that consumers are able to choose products from a diversified range that is safe and healthy on one hand and contributing to the social cause and have a less environmental impact on the other. Our aim is to connect people who can share stories and help businesses who are involved in the Natural and Eco-friendly organic business. Our passion is for an environmentally safe Planet Earth. We believe it is one of several most important ways whereby we can contribute to the now a very fragile environmental ecosystem. By supporting natural and Organic product business we promote its benefits and support wider issues that mean a lot to all of us.

How we do it

A seller files an application online with us creates their shop profile and starts selling – it's that simple! We at our end take care of the promotion and marketing. Our customers don't have to search endlessly to identify and choose the products of their preferences. No more squinting at fine prints on labels. If we have it on our platform, trust us-it's the best! We continually strive to promote all the sellers and products to our customers on our platform. We are steadily expanding loyal customer base that has become possible only because we stock not only fabulous products but also great weekly articles on Lifestyle, health, health tips, recipes and issue of nature and environmental.

Do it with us

Do you have a Natural Products or an Organic range, which you want to provide to the right customer? If so, then we'd love to hear from you. Make ready good quality images and descriptions/storyline of your products ready. Go ahead! Fill in our online application and get approval in minutes (if we're at our desks-but we're usually pretty quick). In case you want to know more, don't hesitate to get in touch!

Our Mission

To be an ethical business, taking small steps to a better, healthier planet. Provide a trusted online platform where Unique, Healthy and safe Products crafted with care with regard to the ingredients used, which also contribute to the incremental improvement in the environment can be easily found. Connect people and promote brands which make or sell natural and organic products to an expanding market of well aware and health passionate buyers.
